The "Specialness" of an Ordinary Day

Your donations help give clients the gift of an ordinary day.

It wasn't anything special.

Callie had lunch with a friend and then she went shopping for plants to brighten up the entrance way.

That may sound like an ordinary, "normal" day for a lot of us, but for Callie and people with disabilities, they don't have ordinary, "normal" days like we think of them.

Your donations help turn ordinary days into special days for clients at the Center.

Some of our clients wouldn't have the resources to be able to get out and enjoy their community. They would spend most of their time at home shut off from friends and the chance to experience the everyday "normal" things that we may take for granted. So what we think of as an ordinary day becomes a special day for someone who looks at it as a gift.

Enjoying the gift of time spent with friends.

And since she loves animals, we hope to work in a few trips to the zoo.

Your support gives Callie the opportunity to enjoy the same things in life that we would. In short you help her have a fulfilling life.

Callie doesn't take the little things for granted and she is very grateful for all of her ordinary days!

Your support helps Callie have a fulfilling life.

And Callie makes good use of her gift!

Her week is full of special days when she gets to go to the library, a cooking class or the park. Soon she'll be going to the YMCA once a week.

We Need You! Make a difference in someone's life—become a board member!

If you have a heart for people with disabilities (and you must because you're getting this newsletter!), please consider becoming a board member.

Your experience, compassion and insight are valuable assets that can help make a difference in the lives of the people we serve.

Board meetings are only once a month but the impact of your support is felt everyday!

If you haven't been to the center in a while, we invite you to come by and meet some of the individuals who will benefit from your service.

Please contact Bob Sexton, at the center for more information.

Center's Produce Sale Makes a Positive Impact

Your support of the Center gives young man chance to see his idea in action!

Have you ever had an idea but no one was willing to take a chance on it, or you?

Thanks to your support of the center and your belief that everyone deserves a chance to succeed, Will didn't have to experience the let down of no one giving him a chance.

Will had the idea of helping the center raise money with a Produce Sale.

Making a positive impact in the community and in a person.

Instead of no one listening to him or taking him seriously, the center encouraged and supported his efforts to make the event happen.

Will is involved in every aspect of the event planning and goes out on calls to the various stores and produce markets to meet the people and to ask for their donation.

Will has been able to see his idea grow into a positive, productive and successful event for the center. And Will feels good about himself and his efforts.

Thanks to you and to Pratt's, Kroger, Food City and several individual farmers, Will was able to raise more money this year than last year! Way to go Will!

Will (with Perry Pratt) raising money and awareness for the center.
